November Events @ Weston Library

Minecraft Meetup and Builder's Workshop, Nov. 15, 1PM-3PM

Weston Public Library has its own Minecraft world, and kids are invited to come play in it! Bring your Minecraft player name, your library card, and a parent or guardian, and we'll add you to the server! If you bring a computer, you can hang out for a while and play Minecraft with other kids. There will also be a chance to do some real-life building with Legos or by making Lego parachute men. We'll also have Minecraft on the PS3.

Lunch and Learn: Iran: What We Forgot or Never Knew, Nov. 16, 12PM

Karl Meyer and Shareen Brysac will draw information from their book Kingmakers: The Invention of the Modern Middle East to present a talk about the history of Iran. Attendees are welcome to bring a lunch.

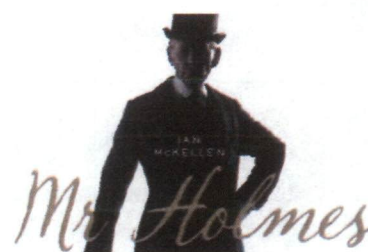

SCORE: The New Lending Landscape, Nov. 17, 6PM

Accessing capital to fuel your business' growth is a lot tougher today than it used to be - and because of all the different options available, it requires a more savvy borrower than ever before. Join us for an insider's view into the new world of online lending. You will learn: How the different types of financing work and who provides them, which financing options are right for different types of businesses, and how to apply for financing. Presented by Ty Kiisel.

Movie Night: Mr. Holmes (PG), Nov. 19, 7PM

Synopsis: In 1947, an aging Sherlock Holmes faces the end of his days tending to his bees, with only the company of his housekeeper and her young son, Roger. Grappling with the diminishing powers of his mind, Holmes comes to rely upon Roger as he revisits the circumstances of the unsolved case that forced him into retirement, and searches for answers to the mysteries of life and love - before it's too late.

International Games Day, Nov. 21, all day

For International Games Day, the Weston Library will be hosting all sorts of games all day long! Festivities will include games of Bingo, access to our Playstation with various games, space for our local Minecrafters to gather, and a variety of board games around the library. All ages are welcome!
